

Identity Theft

“Victims spend an average of $1500 to restore their name* and an average of 175 hours are spent dealing with related problems.”

* American Insurance Group (AIG)
 Federal Trade Commission

“People whose identities have been stolen can spend months or years - and thousands of dollars - cleaning up the mess the thieves have made of their good name and credit record.”

- Federal Trade Commission: When Bad Things Happen to Your Good Name. September 2002

It's no secret: Identity Theft is a major problem in America.

Think you're not at risk?
Unfortunately you are.

- Do you hand your credit card to servers at restaurants?
- Do you sign your credit cards?
- Do you supply personal information over the internet?
- Do you keep your Social Security number in your wallet or purse?
- Do you leave mail at your home or business for the postal carrier to collect?
- Do you shred unwanted mail with personal information?
- Do other people ever run your credit report?
- Can you be sure data security is good at companies that have your information?

Find out how our new Identity Theft Shield can help you!
